General Statement of Professional Experience (written by firm)

Lavallee Brensinger Architects is a well-established, highly reputable firm that has served the New Hampshire Bureau of Public Works for statewide projects for many years. As one of the largest and most experienced architecture and planning firm in Northern New England, we offer you the resources required to address your most difficult or complex projects. We are committed to innovative, sustainable design as well as providing the quality and value that the State of Maine demands.

Lavallee Brensinger Architects provides a full range of architecture planning, design, and interior design services for projects of all sizes. The following five projects represent a few of the smaller, more recent work of the firm in the public sector. We will be pleased to provide additional information upon request.
